

Read the page from the storybook - The Adventures of Pinocchio.

Geppetto was an old carpenter. He lived alone all his life. He always wanted a little boy. So he made small dolls out of wood hoping they will turn into a real boy someday.

His house was very small but it was neat and comfortable. It has a small room, with a tiny window under. There is a very old chair, an old bed, and a tumbledown table. A small fireplace was in a corner. A small kitchen area and a dining table

As soon as he came home, Geppetto took his tools and began to cut and shape the wood into a small doll. "What shall I call him?" he said to himself. "I think I will call him PINOCCHIO."

After choosing the name for his doll, Geppetto tried to make the hair, the forehead, and the eyes. After the eyes, Geppetto made the nose, which began to grow longer as soon as finished. It grew, and grew, and grew, until it became so long.

Poor Geppetto kept cutting it and cutting it, but the more he cut, the longer it grew. He did not know what was happening and he became very sad. He stopped and started to make the mouth. After the mouth, he made the neck, the shoulders, the stomach, the arms, and the hands. The legs and feet. As soon as they were done, Geppetto felt a sharp kick on the top of his nose.

When he looked down, he was so surprised. His doll was alive. It became a real boy. A fairy was standing beside him. She said 'Pinocchio should always be a very good boy or else he will turn into a doll again' Geppetto jumped and jumped. He was so happy.

He took Pinocchio under the arms and put him on the floor to teach him to walk. Pinocchio started walking by himself and ran all around the room.

Now, let us answer the questions

What does the first picture show?

Why did Geppetto keep cutting Pinocchio's nose?

What will happen if Pinocchio becomes a bad boy?

4. Describe how Geppetto's house is?

Draw and color a picture from Pinocchio Story that you have just read

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin black border, intended for a student to draw and color a scene from the Pinocchio story. A large, faint watermark 'ables.com' is visible across the box.