

Name: _____
Date: _____

Subject: Themes - Endangered species
Sheet: Red wolf

Endangered Species: Red Wolf

1 Fill in the missing information:

Scientific name: _____

Diet: _____

Size (length): _____

Weight: _____

Habitat: _____

Lifespan in the wild: _____

Main threats: _____

2 Use the word bank to complete the facts below:

- The Red Wolf (Canis Rufus) is the most endangered of all the wolf _____.
- They are similar in _____ to a German shepherd dog.
- The red wolf belongs to the _____ family.
- Red wolf packs usually contain between 2 and 10 _____.
- They _____ by howling, scent marking, and body movement.
- Red wolves _____ forests, wetlands, coastal prairies and mountains.
- They make their _____ in hollow trees, stream banks and in sand knolls.
- The female red wolf gives birth to a _____ of 4 - 6 pups.
- The pups are born blind and are _____ by the rest of the pack.
- They will either stay with their parents or leave to start a _____ of their own.
- Today, about 50 red wolves _____ in the wild.
- _____ of the red wolf include wolves, coyotes, and humans.

size

litter exist

nursed

canidae

dens

members

pack communicate species inhabit

predators