

Homophones are words that sound the same but have different spellings and meanings. Choose the correct word from the bracket to complete each sentence

My sister is _____ today. (ate / eight)

I can _____ my name in French. (right / write)

My mother has long _____. (hare / hair)

_____ do you live? (wear / where)

We are going _____ the market. (to / two)

I've got a _____ , an apple and an orange. (pear / pair)

The _____ is very calm today. (see / sea)

The dog eats _____ and bones. (meet / meat)

We can see the moon at _____. (night / knight)

Sheela ate a _____ of cake. (peace / piece)